Marronnier & Namiki Yomiuri Ginza Project MUJI Global Flagship Store and MUJI HOTEL (tentative) to open in Spring 2019

- The Yomiuri Shimbun (Tokyo; Toshikazu Yamaguchi, President & Representative Director) and Mitsui Fudosan Co., Ltd. (Tokyo; Masanobu Komoda, President & CEO) have been jointly developing a retail and hotel complex building in Ginza, Tokyo (the Marronnier & Namiki Yomiuri Ginza Project), and announced today that the construction successfully commenced on June 15 and the ground breaking ceremony was held on June 19. The facility is expected to complete and open in spring 2019, with major tenants such as Ryohin Keikaku Co., Ltd. (Tokyo; Satoru Matsuzaki, President & Representative Director) and UDS Ltd. of Odakyu Group (Tokyo; Keibun Nakagawa, President & Representative Director).
- Located on the face of Namiki street (long-time famous street for high-end brands) and nearby Ginza Marronnier street (one of the most popular shopping destinations in Ginza), the Yomiuri Shimbun will add another attraction to the area together with their existing MARRONNIER GATE GINZA (first building celebrating 10th year in September, second and third newly opened in March).
- The building under construction is ten floors above ground and three floors below. Stores will be located from the first basement to sixth floor and a hotel from sixth to tenth floor. The plan includes Ryohin Keikaku's MUJI global flagship store and the first MUJI HOTEL (tentative) in Japan. Regarding MUJI HOTEL (tentative), Ryohin Keikaku will provide the total concept and interior design including the supply of furniture and amenity goods, while the rest of the designing and operation will be done by UDS.
- Mitsui Fudosan will manage the project development such as planning, designing, construction control and tenant search until completion and thereafter the master lease for the tenants.

About The Yomiuri Shimbun

The Yomiuri Shimbun is a national newspaper with more than 140 years of history. Its nationwide distribution network encompasses around 7,200 distributors and issue both morning and evening editions. Founded in November 1874, the name is derived from the Edo era "kawaraban" style of informational paper, which was meant to be read ("yomi") while selling ("uri"). It serves the public's "right to know" with numerous scoops, while mobilizing social development with courageous, responsible editorials and realistic, compelling proposals. It also provides extensive content that is relevant to the rapidly aging society and low birthrate, with coverage in the fields of medicine, social insurance, and education.
