Free Smartphone APP “MUJI passport” Launched in Singapore

MUJI (SINGAPORE) PRIVATE LTD. (Singapore; Representative: Katsushi Onishi) of the Ryohin Keikaku Group (Toshima-ku, Tokyo; President & Representative Director: Nobuo Domae) has launched the Singaporean version of free smartphone application “MUJI passport” on September 15, 2021. This application allows users to earn shopping miles when shopped at MUJI stores in Singapore.

Launched in May 2013 in Japan, “MUJI passport” has been downloaded more than 24.5 million times ^{(*)2} to date in Japan, and what’s more, the overseas versions of the application (available in Mainland China, Taiwan, Korea, Hong Kong, India, Finland, Vietnam and Malaysia) have gained a total of over 34.7 million*2 downloads.

The Singaporean version “MUJI passport” is an application that not only allows users to earn "MUJI Miles", but also distributes information about MUJI products and stores through the communication tool “from MUJI”. With these functions, we aim to serve the local customers who shop at MUJI stores in Singapore and expand the number of MUJI fans.
